

Raymond L. Rosales, MD PhD

Raymond L. Rosales, MD PhD is University Hospital Chair and Head of the Neuroscience Institute (Dept. of Neurology & Psychiatry), as well as Full Professor of the Medical School, The University of Santo Tomas (Manila). He serves as clinical staff in Movement Disorders and Clinical Neurophysiology at St. Luke's Medical Center (Quezon City). He was a former President of the Philippine Neurological Association and the Movement Disorders Society of the Philippines. He previously sat as Secretary and Board member of the AOS of IPMDS. Since its inception in 2015, he has been the Annual Convenor of the ABCD-S (Asian Botulinum Toxin Masterclass in Dystonia& Spasticity).