

Cristina Tassorelli, MD, PhD

Cristina Tassorelli, MD, PhD is the Director of Headache Science Centre and of the Neurorehabilitative Unit at the IRCCS C. Mondino Foundation, Chair of Neurology and Director of the Neurology Residency Program at the University of Pavia. Chair of the IHS Committee for the Guidelines of Clinical Trials.

Dr Tassorelli received a medical degree summa cum laude from the University of Pavia. She was an intern at the C. Mondino National Neurological Institute as part her training as an MD, completed her training in Neurology at the University of Pavia and then obtained a PhD Degree in Human Psychobiology at the University of Modena (Italy). She spent a 2-year Post-Doctoral Fellowship at the Dept. of Neuroscience of the University of Rochester (NY).

She has served as a director in the Board of the International Headache Society and was a founding member and vice-President of the European Headache Alliance.

She is presently Chief Section Editor of Frontiers in Neurology, section Headache Medicine and Facial Pain.

She has been the coordinator and/or a partner in competitive grants funded by the EU, the Italian Ministry of Health and the Italian Ministry of University.

Dr. Tassorelli has authored more than 240 peer-reviewed publications and coauthored several books and book chapters.